A message from our new local MP

Thank you to everyone who voted in the General Election, whichever party you supported.

As the new MP for Torbay I am here to represent and help our whole community. People have voted for change and that's what I am already working to deliver - the positive change that will get a fair deal for local people.

I am fighting every day for you, your family, and our community. And I'm here for you whenever you need me.

Please get in touch with any issue you have, no matter how small. My job is to be a strong voice for our area and a hardworking champion for you and your family. Thank you for your support.

Steve will be a strong voice and a visible local MP for Torbay.
